

Position Announcements

* The Dublin City University (DCU) Institute of Education (IRE) comprises six schools and applications are welcome from suitably qualified staff for a position as Lecturer in Education - Physical Education (3-Year Contract). Closing date for all positions: 24 June 2016. Please note that staff normally must have successfully completed their probationary period to apply.

Further information on the above position, including the job descriptions, is available from <http://www.dcu.ie/hr/vacancies/current.shtml>. Application forms are available from the DCU Current Vacancies (open Competitions) website at <http://www.dcu.ie/hr/vacancies/current.shtml> and also from the Human Resources Department, Dublin City University, Dublin 9. Tel: +353 \(0\) 1 7005149. Applications should be submitted by email to hr.applications@dcu.ie <<mailto:hr.applications@dcu.ie>>, or by Fax: +353 \(0\)1 700 5500, or by post to the Human Resources Department, Dublin City University, Dublin 9.

* The West Virginia University (USA) College of Physical Activity and Sport Sciences (CPASS) invites applications for a Teaching Assistant Professor in Athletic Coaching Education with an emphasis in Kinesiology. This position will report directly to the Chair of the Department of Coaching and Teaching Studies. CPASS is especially interested in qualified candidates who can contribute, through their teaching and service, to the diversity and excellence of the academic community. Appointment: August 16, 2016 – Nine-month appointment. Summer teaching opportunities are available. Responsibilities: Provide leadership for the Department of Coaching and Teaching Studies. The ideal candidate will have college teaching in coaching education and/or experience with a national sport governing body's coaching education program. It is expected that the candidate will provide service to the department and College. The specific responsibilities for the position include:

1. Teaching classes in the athletic coaching education and physical education teacher education programs. A minimum teaching load of 12 credits each semester is required. Classes include anatomy, sport movement analysis, biomechanics, motor learning and career planning in sport.
2. Supervision of students completing internships and field practicums in strength & conditioning.
3. Advising/mentoring undergraduate and graduate students.
4. Facilitating technology integration into curriculum.
5. Providing service to the profession and serving on appropriate University and College-wide committees.

Professional Qualifications: An earned doctoral degree with a specialization in kinesiology or a closely related area at the time of appointment. Excellent written and oral communication skills and leadership skills are required. Preference will be given to applicants with evidence of effective teaching in a coaching education program. Salary: Commensurate with qualifications. Review of Applications: Begins June 24, 2016, and will continue until the position is filled. Letter of Application/Nomination and Credentials:

Electronic application with supporting credentials (letter of application, curriculum vitae, teaching philosophy and the names, addresses, phone numbers, and email addresses of a minimum of four professional references). Letter of application should speak to (1) ability to effectively teach all five of the courses listed under the responsibilities for this position; (2) experience supervising students completing internships/field placements in strength and conditioning; (3) advising/mentoring students; and (4) use of technology to enhance student learning. Direct specific application questions to: Valerie Wayda, Department Chair, College of Physical Activity and Sport Sciences, PO BOX 6116, Morgantown, WV 26506-6116, valerie.wayda@mail.wvu.edu <mailto:valerie.wayda@mail.wvu.edu>.